PravConf 2025

March 1st & 2nd

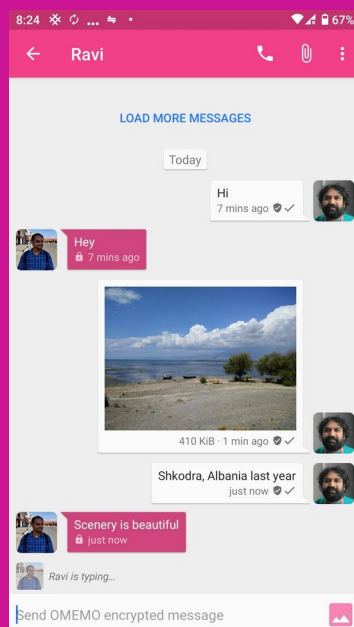

Model Engineering College, Kochi.

Credits: Moksh, Ravi

Welcome to the PravConf 2025. This will be the first conference by the Prav project. It will be held on the 1st and 2nd of March 2025 at Model Engineering College, Kochi. It will be an excellent opportunity for the attendees to learn more about our mission and goals.

Prav is a messaging service which can be used to exchange messages, audio/video calls, files, images and videos over the Internet. Inspired by the Quicksy app, Prav provides the convenience of registering with only a phone number. Prav has no vendor lock-in. Mainstream messaging apps only allow you to talk to people who use the same app. Prav allows you to talk to people using any app that understands the XMPP protocol, like Quicksy, Monocles Chat, Dino, Gajim, Monal, and many more. The project is in the process of forming a cooperative society. To know more about us, feel free to check out our website, prav.app.

Become a Sponsor

We invite you to sponsor PravConf 2025. As a sponsor, your brand will get visibility among the Prav community and the broader free software community. We have a range of sponsorship packages available, with various levels of benefits to suit your needs.

PravConf 2025 is a community-driven event, and your sponsorship will go a long way. All our organizers work as volunteers without compensation. Your funds will help us in arranging food for the attendees, printing flyers and stickers for the conference, and provide travel grant to some attendees. We have listed benefits for our sponsors on the next page.
